COLLECTION HIGHLIGHT
IT’S A LEYENDECKER LEAP YEAR!

J.C. Leyendecker, Magazine Cover - Leap Year, The Saturday Evening Post, Haggin Museum Collection

This painting by J.C. Leyendecker, originally created for the February 29, 1908 cover for The Saturday Evening Post, will be on display in February celebrating the 2020 Leap Year!

Playing upon the old tradition of unmarried women being encouraged to propose marriage on Leap Year day, Leyendecker featured a bachelorette chasing a terrified cupid in this cover illustration.

2nd Saturdays for Families

Get creative at the Haggin! 2nd Saturday events are designed for children ages 5-12, and feature hands-on events for families. Activities include art projects, interactive programs and museum-wide events. Reservations are not required, but seating is available on a first come, first served basis. Materials and activities are included with regular admission.

FLIP AND FLEX
SAT, JAN 11 | 1:30 - 3PM
Stretch out your winter muscles and put your STEAM thinking caps on as you design your own flextangle. These moving paper hexagons allow you to have three works of art in one!

TUG AT THE HEARTSTRINGS
SAT, FEB 8 | 1:30 - 3PM
Learn the basics of embroidery as you sew your own felt heart ornament. Keep it as a treasure for yourself or give it to your Valentine!

SOW A SEED
SAT, MAR 14 | 1:30 - 3PM
Celebrate spring by using colored beans to design your own mosaic work of art. Group colors to make patterns and shapes or go abstract—the sky’s the limit.

2nd Saturdays for Families programming is generously underwritten by Joan W. Diehl

For more information, contact the Education Department at 209.940.6315 or education@hagginmuseum.org
Enjoy a special evening at the Haggin Museum. Events vary each month with special guests, live music, wine and more!

Grab your friends or make it a date!

THURSDAY, JAN 2 | 7 PM
Winter Festival | Are you looking for a fun night out with the family? Brave the cold and bring the whole family to celebrate winter with an evening of fun games and crafts. There may be a chill in the air, but it’s warm at the Haggin!

THURSDAY, JAN 16 | 7 PM
Mark & Cindy Lemaire | While fingerstyle guitarist Mark Lemaire’s solo compositions stand as complete statements, his harmonies with Cindy are so perfectly matched that they seem like two people with one voice, creating something both authentic and unique. The couple toured the world, performing last year from New Zealand to Scotland to Canada, as well as here in the states.

THURSDAY, FEB 6 | 7 PM
Washboard Monkeys | Washboard Monkeys began as three friends jamming in a Stockton living room on a Saturday in January of 2015. They played their first gig that spring on the Earth Day stage at Victory Park. The three had such a great time that they became five. Their eclectic style and infectious vocal harmonies bring irreverent fun to the stage.

THURSDAY, FEB 20 | 7 PM
Pacific Avenue Clarinets | Five clarinets and an occasional percussionist play original works and transcriptions for clarinet. Performances feature sounds from Coltrane to Bozza. Michael Hernandez, Amanda Martin, Connor Moen, Christina Severin, and Chris Steffanic work together to bring out a unique "sound picture" of every piece: whether the work is jazz oriented, mid-eastern, European, or classical American, every work has a distinctive collage of sounds.

THURSDAY, MAR 5 | 7 PM
Ernest Troost | "If the Carter Family, Robbie Robertson, and Alfred Hitchcock wrote songs together they might sound like this," says Ernest Troost of his evocative folk and blues inspired songwriting and guitar work. An Emmy-award winning film and television composer, Troost promises pensive, sometimes snarling but lyrically driven Americana for fans of blues style guitar picking with timeless stories and colorful character portrayals.

THURSDAY, MAR 19 | 7 PM
Claudia Russell & Bruce Kaplan | Claudia Russell and Bruce Kaplan traverse a wide Americana landscape, stopping at wondrous musical landmarks along the way, tipping their hat to string bands, blues divas, jazz cats, Village folkies, Bakersfield cowboys, and Laurel Canyon troubadours. Their performance is served up with a generous helping of homespun humor and shaggy dog stories, making for a heartfelt and humorous evening of deeply engaging music.

Complimentary wine from Weibel Family Vineyards & Winery and snacks courtesy of the Junior Women’s Group will be available beginning at 6:30 pm every 1st & 3rd Thursday evening, when the museum is open until 9 pm.
DOCENT NEWS

ART TRAINING 2020

Haggin Museum Docents are a vital part of the Museum’s Education Department and provide support by leading tours for visitors of all ages, participating in community outreach, and volunteering at events. Docents enhance the visitor experience and create connections between the Haggin’s collections and guests.

Our docents participate in both history and art training to prepare for their role at the museum—learning about regional history and the Haggin’s collection of 19th and 20th century art. The next round of docent art training begins late-January, meeting most Tuesdays through early-April. This year’s Art Coordinators are Claudia Collignon and Deb Miles. Both have been working closely with the Haggin’s Education Department to develop the art training and will serve as mentors to the incoming docent trainees.

MEET OUR ART COORDINATORS

Claudia Collignon

“I have always loved learning about art and history. I was drawn to the Haggin Museum because it provides a unique experience as it brings art and history together in one place,” explains Claudia. “Becoming a docent is rewarding for me in many ways, but mostly it allows me to share my knowledge and appreciation for art and history with others.”

Deb Miles

“Being a docent is multifaceted— I can be a storyteller while leading tours then turn around and socialize with visitors at our late night Thursday events,” says Deb. “I’m looking forward to the docent art training as it gives me joy to share the information I’ve learned about our collection with others.”

LEARN MORE

Docent Meet & Greet

Tuesday, January 14, 2020 | 10 am - 12 pm

Have you ever wondered what the docent volunteers do at the Haggin Museum? Have you ever considered becoming a docent volunteer? Now is your chance to learn more about our docent program! Drop by the museum to meet current docents, go on a spotlight tour, experience our Museum2Schools programs, and learn more about what it means to become a docent. The next docent training course begins in January and focuses on the Museum’s art collection, but no prior art knowledge is necessary.

Interested in becoming a docent at the Haggin Museum? Contact the Education Department at (209) 940-6315 or email education@hagginmuseum.org.
Join the Mad Hatter, Alice and the White Rabbit at the 25th Annual Mad Hatter’s Tea Party. This popular springtime event, started by the Museum Store Auxiliary in the early-90s, is inspired by Lewis Carroll’s classic story Alice in Wonderland. You will be able to meet characters from the book, including Alice, the White Rabbit and the Queen of Hearts; all are brought to life by local drama students.

Tea is served from elegant silver tea services, accompanied by delicious canapés, cookies and other tea time treats prepared by Museum Store Auxiliary members.

This annual event is much anticipated by museum members and sells out, so watch for your invitations during the last week of February and make your reservations promptly.

For more information, contact Jan Gerst at (209) 462-2300 or jangerst@comcast.net. If you know of families who would like to attend but are not members, please encourage them to join the museum by contacting Visitor Services & Membership Coordinator Celia Castro at (209) 940-6316 or ccastro@hagginmuseum.org.

Members of the Haggin Museum receive valuable benefits including—but not limited to—free admission to the museum year-round, access to Member’s Only events, and a discount on Museum Store purchases. Membership at the Supporting level ($100) and above includes NARM reciprocal benefits. The North American Reciprocal Museum (NARM) Association offers reciprocal benefits to members of over 1,000 arts and cultural institutions. Some NARM affiliated arts organizations include: Carnegie Arts Center, Turlock; Crocker Art Museum, Sacramento; Asian Art Museum, San Francisco; de Young Museum, San Francisco; Legion of Honor, San Francisco. Members can visit the NARM website to see a full list of participating organizations.

To join or upgrade your membership, please contact our Visitor Services & Membership Coordinator Celia Castro at (209) 940-6316 or ccastro@hagginmuseum.org.
The French artist Jean Leon Gérôme (1824-1904) was one of the most popular and wealthy artists of his time. This was due largely to the subject matter of his paintings and the fact that many of these original works were later reproduced as prints.

He is best known for his re-creations of scenes from classical antiquity and depictions of contemporary historical events and Orientalist scenes. This latter category consisted of works based upon Gérôme's many trips to both Turkey and Egypt where he sketched, took photographs and collected costumes and artifacts to help ensure the accuracy of the paintings he would later create in his studio. As his fame grew, Gérôme’s paintings were acquired by wealthy collectors, including the Haggins—five of which are part of the Museum’s collection.

Another collector of Gérôme’s works was the prominent Parisian art dealer Adolphe Goupil, who also ran a publishing company. The two began their collaboration in 1859, with Goupil producing prints of some of the artist’s best known paintings. Made by a process that combined copper plate engraving with photography, these prints preserved the richness and attention to detail that were the hallmarks of Gérôme’s paintings. And because the prints could be purchased for a fraction of an original painting, the artist’s work could now be enjoyed by a much larger audience, both in Europe and the United States. Their business relationship must have been quite an amicable one, for in 1863 Gérôme married Goupil’s daughter, Marie.

A selection of the Museum’s collection of 99 Gérôme/Goupil prints will be on display in the New Gallery beginning Thursday, March 5.

Celebrate the arts in education during the 89th Annual Robert T. McKee Student Art Exhibition, the longest running student art exhibition in the country! This event features the work of student artists from kindergarten through grade 12.

The exhibition was first envisioned by founding patron Robert T. McKee, whose goal was to encourage students by providing a public venue for their artwork. All schools in San Joaquin County—public, private, charter, parochial and home-schools—receive invitations to submit their work. On average, Haggin receives 1,000 pieces of art chosen by the teachers as the best in their class. The Museum’s Tuleburg and West galleries will be filled with two- and three-dimensional art works created in crayon, colored pencil, pastel, watercolor, oil and acrylic paint, photography, and other mediums.

Student Artwork Submission:
All San Joaquin county K-12 teachers are invited to participate. For more information on how to submit student art for the exhibition, view the 2020 exhibition guidelines, available on the museum website www.hagginmuseum.org.

Opening Reception:
Saturday, February 22, 2020 | 1:30 - 3 pm

This year the Museum will hold a welcome reception for students, their families, and teachers on February 22nd. This event is FREE to everyone and sponsored by the Junior Women’s Group of the Haggin Museum who will provide punch and cookies to the guests.

LADIES AUXILIARY TO CALIFORNIA PIONEERS

SPRING CARD PARTY

Wednesday, April 1, 2020 | 1 – 4 pm

Reservations: $12.50 per person; $50 per table

The Ladies Auxiliary to California Pioneers will hold its 92nd annual card party on Wednesday, April 1 at the Haggin Museum.

This auxiliary event began in 1928 to raise funds to build the museum. It features the card game of your choice preceded by a delicious dessert, coffee and tea. Men are welcome to join in on the fun!

The reservation deadline is Monday, March 23. For more information, call Darlene Ferrario at (209) 952-4503. Please make your check payable to LACP and mail to Darlene Ferrario at 5837 Morgan Place #86, Stockton, CA 95219

The LACP was pleased to welcome Haggin Museum CEO Tod Ruhstaller at its October luncheon at the Stockton Golf & Country Club. After Tod’s presentation, LACP President Elaine Dixon Ugarkovich presented him with a check for $2,000 for the museum from the LACP. (see photograph above)

Our first meeting of the year will be our potluck luncheon on February 5 at noon.

At the March 4 meeting at 1 pm, our program will feature Dillon Delvo, Co-founder and Executive Director of the Little Manilla Foundation.

Guests are welcome to attend the monthly presentations at the museum.

JUNIOR WOMEN’S GROUP

THANK YOU!

Each holiday season the Museum is beautifully decorated by the Junior Women’s Group Auxiliary, which also hosts the biennial Family Christmas Party. The JWG transformed the Museum into a winter wonderland of shining and twinkling lights for the “Oh What Fun it is to Ride Christmas Party” held in December. Over 400 guests enjoyed a variety of delicious food, holiday music, singing along with elves and visiting with Santa Claus. JWG and the Haggin Staff are grateful for the assistance of the Stockton firefighters who provide much of the heavy lifting for the event set-up and clean-up. The Haggin’s Board of Trustees and staff would like to thank all volunteers whose efforts benefit our members and visitors during the holiday season.
